MESSAGE FROM FATHER/ MENSAJE DEL PADRE

Dear Brothers and Sisters in Christ,

This Sunday, we celebrate Good Shepherd Sunday—a day that holds deep significance in our faith and in the rich history of Christianity. The image of Christ as the Good Shepherd, which has comforted and guided Christians for nearly two millennia, resonates profoundly with us today. I often reflect on the ancient depiction found in the Catacomb of San Callistus, where Christ is portrayed as a youthful shepherd with a sheep gently resting on His shoulders, symbolizing His unending care and dedication to us all.

On this day, we are called to appreciate not only the tender care that Jesus extends to us, His flock, but also the ultimate sacrifice He made out of love for us. His voice calls out to us in every moment of our lives, urging us to follow Him with unwavering trust and faith. This celebration also honors the sacred vocation of our pastors, who emulate Christ's loving kindness as they tend to their congregations.

I am profoundly grateful and truly honored to serve as your priest here at OLP. Each day with you is a blessing, witnessing your faith, your challenges, and your triumphs. Together, we make a vibrant tapestry of believers, united in our journey toward Christ.

Today, let us offer our prayers for Pope Francis, Bishop Fabre, our diocesan priests, and all who nurture our spiritual well-being. May they continue to embody the spirit of the Good Shepherd in their ministry, filled with the courage and gentleness bestowed by Christ.

I also invite each of you to see yourselves as shepherds in your own lives. How might you guide, support, and uplift those around you? In our families, workplaces, and communities, we have countless opportunities to manifest the love of Christ and lead others toward His light.

With heartfelt blessings and affection,
Fr. Antony Gaspar

Queridos hermanos y hermanas en Cristo,

Este domingo celebramos el Domingo del Buen Pastor, un día que tiene un profundo significado en nuestra fe y en la rica historia del cristianismo. La imagen de Cristo como Buen Pastor, que ha consolado y guiado a los cristianos durante casi dos milenios, resuena profundamente en nosotros hoy. A menudo reflexiono sobre la antigua representación que se encuentra en la Catacumba de San Calixto, donde se representa a Cristo como un joven pastor con una oveja suavemente apoyada sobre Sus hombros, simbolizando Su interminable cuidado y dedicación hacia todos nosotros.

En este día, estamos llamados a apreciar no sólo el tierno cuidado que Jesús nos brinda, su rebaño, sino también el máximo sacrificio que hizo por amor a nosotros. Su voz nos llama en cada momento de nuestras vidas, instándonos a seguirlo con confianza y fe inquebrantables. Esta celebración también honra la sagrada vocación de nuestros pastores, quienes emulan la bondad amorosa de Cristo al atender a sus congregaciones.

Estoy profundamente agradecido y verdaderamente honrado de servir como su sacerdote aquí en OLP. Cada día contigo es una bendición, siendo testigo de tu fe, de tus desafíos y de tus triunfos. Juntos, formamos un tapiz vibrante de creyentes, unidos en nuestro camino hacia Cristo.

Hoy, ofrezcamos nuestras oraciones por el Papa Francisco, el obispo Fabre, nuestros sacerdotes diocesanos y todos los que nutren nuestro bienestar espiritual. Que sigan encarnando el espíritu del Buen Pastor en su ministerio, llenos del coraje y la gentileza otorgados por Cristo.

También los invito a cada uno de ustedes a verse como pastores en sus propias vidas. ¿Cómo podrías guiar, apoyar y elevar a quienes te rodean? En nuestras familias, lugares de trabajo y comunidades, tenemos innumerables oportunidades para manifestar el amor de Cristo y guiar a otros hacia Su luz.

Con sinceras bendiciones y cariño,
Padre. Antonio Gaspar
