MESSAGE FROM FATHER ANTONY

Special thanks to the coordinators, and everyone involved in a special way, who made the Sacrament of Confirmation ceremony and the eucharist very impassioned and spiritual. 31 teens of our OLP family were confirmed by our retired Bishop. Guglielmone. May their hearts be filled with the power of the holy spirit.

We read in this Fifth Sunday of Easter's first reading, the Apostles appointing for the first time in our mother church, the deacons to the charitable ministries of the church so that the apostles may devote themselves entirely to preaching the word of God. Charity is the highest form of love, God's love expressed through human hands and minds.

In the reading, we hear that the widows of the Hellenists felt neglected. The deacons took care of the well-being of the poor and widows.

God calls all people to make this world better. God's call is common to all. It is those who accept this call and walk in God's ways do divine works. When we give ourselves completely to God's work and begin to live dedicated lives in it, then we begin to become God's possession. Our life as children of God begins there.

After we start doing God's work, God has a plan for us as had for the deacons of the early church. In our every move, there is His guidance. Even better, God's protection begins to be fully available to us. God can do wonders if we keep our tools ready in His name.

Un agradecimiento especial a los coordinadores, y a todos los involucrados de manera especial, que hicieron que la ceremonia del Sacramento de la Confirmación y la eucaristía fueran muy apasionadas y espirituales. 31 adolescentes de nuestra familia OLP fueron confirmados por nuestro obispo jubilado. Guglielmone. Que sus corazones se llenen del poder del espíritu santo.

Leemos en la primera lectura de este Quinto Domingo de Pascua, los Apóstoles nombrando por primera vez en nuestra iglesia madre, a los diáconos para los ministerios caritativos de la iglesia para que los apóstoles se dediquen enteramente a predicar la palabra de Dios. La caridad es la forma más alta de amor, el amor de Dios expresado a través de las manos y las mentes humanas. En la lectura, escuchamos que las viudas de los helenistas se sintieron desatendidas. Los diáconos velaban por el bienestar de los pobres y las viudas.

Dios llama a todas las personas a hacer este mundo mejor. La llamada de Dios es común a todos. Son aquellos que aceptan este llamado y caminan en los caminos de Dios hacen obras divinas. Cuando nos entregamos por completo a la obra de Dios y comenzamos a vivir vidas dedicadas a ella, entonces comenzamos a convertirnos en posesión de Dios. Nuestra vida como hijos de Dios comienza allí.

Después de que empezamos a hacer la obra de Dios, Dios tiene un plan para nosotros como lo tenía para los diáconos de la iglesia primitiva. En cada uno de nuestros movimientos, está Su guía. Aún mejor, la protección de Dios comienza a estar completamente disponible para nosotros. Dios puede hacer maravillas si mantenemos nuestras herramientas listas en Su nombre.
