MESSAGE FROM FATHER WILSON

Dear Friends in Christ,

In this Gospel passage we are confronted by a different outcome experienced by two men: a bad rich man and a good poor man. Riches are not evil in themselves, nor is poverty itself good, but rather the difference consists in our riches in Christ; there are good and bad ways of being rich and poor.

The man in the parable was living by wealth and for wealth; it was his only aim in life: garments of purple and the finest linen, feasts, praise from his friends, this is how he spent each day. We can note that his name is not given in the Gospel. It just says, "There was a rich man, fond of rich banquets." However, we will always remember the name of the poor man: Lazarus.

The rich man ended up being more tormented than the poor man was in this life, while in the end the poor man was happier than any rich man in the world. God gives each person what they deserve. And earthly wealth distracts us from true treasure. Christ gives us the chance to be rich...but a richness that far exceeds the price of gold and fine garments.

Christ invites the rich and poor alike to make it to Heaven. He tells the rich to share their wealth with the needy and to invest it in works of charity and care of the sick and the dying, so their life can be easier. And he tells the poor to be united to him on the cross he bore, to desire only the things of heaven, to see even the little they do have as passing. We need to help make the rich people of this world rich in a new way, seeking the treasure of faith: love for Christ and hope of eternal life. How correctly it is said, "the man who has God lacks nothing."

The society we live in measures a man by what he has, and not who he is. We must detach our hearts from the things of this earth, which are superficial and perishable. Our hearts are like potatoes that easily get rooted in the ground of our materialistic culture. In truth, we should not fill our hearts with things and money, because then we would reach eternity with empty hands. Let us fix our gaze on the things that are above.

All the best...in Christ,

Father Wilson
