MESSAGE FROM FATHER WILSON

Dear Friends in Christ,

Christians don't try to exalt sorrow, but love. And the Cross is the sign of love par excellence. In fact, quite often in our lives we find ourselves facing situations we can't understand, interior battles, injustices, exploitation and marginalization. It can be a stern test to our faith.

The life of a Christian will always be marked with the sign of the Cross. The cross finds its full meaning when it becomes the path to the resurrection and glory. C.S. Lewis used to say that suffering is God's megaphone. Let us not forget that there is no life without death, nor joy without sorrow. During those long nights of suffering, Christ is asking us: "Peter, do you love me more than these?"

May we not be afraid when we are faced with difficulties. Christ is in the ship on the stormy sea like he was with the disciples; he may be asleep, but he is still in charge of our lives. Rest assured that we are not alone as we seek to hope against all hope. This hope must become a constant and persevering struggle.

Important things have their price, which is sometimes paid in blood. They say that once Saint Teresa of Avila was going through some difficult circumstances. It seemed like nothing was going her way, and on top of all that, she fractured her leg when getting down from the cart she was riding. And with the fiery temperament she was known for, she turned to God and told him, "Why do you treat me like this?" And God answered, "Teresa, don't complain; this is how I treat my friends." And she responded, "Well, no wonder you have so few!"

We may feel like that sometimes too. Being faithful to God is not easy, but it's worth it. If we are faithful, we can say with St. Paul, "I count everything as rubbish as long as I have Christ!" Hopefully at the end of our lives all of us will be able to say, "I have fought the good fight, I have finished the race, I have kept the faith. And now an eternal crown awaits me"

All the best...in Christ,

Father Wilson

Deanery Eucharistic Procession

To celebrate the Church's Eucharistic Revival, come join the parishes of the Aiken Deanery in a special Procession with the Most Blessed Sacrament. All along the procession route, we will stop at altars representing the parishes of the deanery for prayers and blessings, returning to the church for the final Benediction. After Benediction, get to know your fellow Catholics of the deanery with a reception in St. Angela Hall. (Those who may not be able to walk the entire route will still be able to participate.) See the special flyer for more details. We look forward to seeing you there! *"The procession with the Blessed Sacrament...reminds us that we are called to go out and bring Jesus to others. QUOTE/PRAYER OF THE WEEK

“Guard against anger. But it cannot be averted, let it be kept within bounds. For indignation is a terrible incentive to sin. It disorders the mind to such an extent as to leave no room for reason.”

—St. Ambrose
