MESSAGE FROM FATHER ANTONY

Our special love and blessings to all our children of the OLP family, who received the live-giving bread for the first time last Saturday.

The Sunday before Christ's Ascension prepares us for the time that follows. Jesus will not leave us, orphans. He promises us the Holy Spirit. The biblical texts of this Sunday show us what this means for us. Although Jesus talks about his farewell, I discover great care in him. Not only does he leave us his commandment, but he also gives us great succor. So someone who doesn't leave us alone, but walks with us, encourages us and lifts us up. If we need someone: it's him. While "assistance" is formulated in male terms, the spirit bears female traits. It's a word. Ruach! Life-giving, creative spirit. He gives the world a new face. He was there at the beginning of the world, wise and loving. We are not alone, we are connected to the Father and to the Son in the Holy Spirit. This knowledge should free us from the worry and fear of being alone. We are loved by the Father and by the Son. - This should give us courage and hope.

Ruach, the literal meaning of this Hebrew word is 'the breath of God'. You all would agree with me that the personification of that breath of God on earth, in human flesh and bone, as our helper, lover, advocate, courage giver, and all in one would be our own mothers. We honour all our Mothers on this beautiful day, Mother's Day. Mother is the full form of love; her greater desire is the fulfilment of the desires of their children. As said, she can take the place of all others but no one takes her place. and she is a person who thinks twice; for herself and for her child. May she take the place of the helper Jesus promised till she lives and then the great HELPER, takes over her place. HAPPY MOTHER'S DAY TO ALL MOTHERS
