MESSAGE FROM FATHER/ MENSAJE DEL PADRE

Dear Friends,

Last week, we experienced a truly special moment as 26 of our young ones received the Lord for the first time in that wonder eternal bread. Witnessing their joy and commitment filled my heart with warmth—it was a beautiful milestone in their spiritual journey. I am deeply thankful for the dedication of our wonderful teachers, Ms. Stephanie Acosta, Ms. Barbara Acosta, and Ms. Jan Kroger, who have so lovingly nurtured our children's understanding of our faith.

I also want to extend my heartfelt appreciation to Ms. Jocelyn Chavez and Ms. Fabiola Cardenas for their infectious enthusiasm, and to Mrs. Allison Harris, who has been the coordinator of our OLP Religious Education program along with Mrs. Karen Vivas' committed support. Her leadership has been nothing short of invaluable. As Allison shifts her focus to her family, we send her off with warm wishes and gratitude, and we now begin the search for a new coordinator. Stay tuned for more details on this transition.

Our children's eagerness and love for the Holy Eucharist beautifully mirrors this Sunday's Gospel, John 15:1-8, where Jesus calls us to abide in Him as branches to the vine. This powerful metaphor not only calls us to seek His spiritual sustenance but also invites us to reflect inwardly and deepen our connection with our faith.

As we continue on our paths, let us remember the power of aligning our entire being with the divine. Let the guidance of the spirit prompt us to action—it may very well open doors to opportunities previously unseen. The company we keep can profoundly affect our journey, so I encourage you all to pray for and foster those divine connections that enrich our lives.

Blessings to each of you,

Queridos amigos,

La semana pasada vivimos un momento verdaderamente especial cuando 26 de nuestros jóvenes recibieron al Señor por primera vez en ese maravilloso pan eterno. Ser testigo de su alegría y compromiso llenó mi corazón de calidez; fue un hermoso hito en su viaje espiritual. Estoy profundamente agradecido por la dedicación de nuestras maravillosas maestras, la Sra. Stephanie Acosta, la Sra. Barbara Acosta y la Sra. Jan Kroger, quienes con tanto amor han nutrido la comprensión de nuestra fe por parte de nuestros hijos.

También quiero extender mi más sincero agradecimiento a la Sra. Jocelyn Chávez y a la Sra. Fabiola Cárdenas por su contagioso entusiasmo, y a la Sra. Allison Harris, quien ha sido la coordinadora de nuestro programa de Educación Religiosa de OLP junto con el comprometido apoyo de la Sra. Karen Vivas. Su liderazgo ha sido nada menos que invaluable. Mientras Allison cambia su enfoque hacia su familia, la despedimos con cálidos deseos y gratitud, y ahora comenzamos la búsqueda de un nuevo coordinador. Estén atentos para más detalles sobre esta transición.

El entusiasmo y el amor de nuestros niños por la Sagrada Eucaristía refleja maravillosamente el Evangelio de este domingo, Juan 15:1-8, donde Jesús nos llama a permanecer en Él como sarmientos de la vid. Esta poderosa metáfora no solo nos llama a buscar Su sustento espiritual sino que también nos invita a reflexionar interiormente y profundizar nuestra conexión con nuestra fe.

Mientras continuamos en nuestros caminos, recordemos el poder de alinear todo nuestro ser con lo divino. Dejemos que la guía del espíritu nos impulse a actuar; es muy posible que abra puertas a oportunidades nunca antes vistas. La compañía que mantenemos puede afectar profundamente nuestro viaje, por eso los animo a todos a orar y fomentar esas conexiones divinas que enriquecen nuestras vidas.

Bendiciones para cada uno de ustedes,

Padre. Antonio
